- D) Natural Pictorial – Natural objects must be the focal point. Man made objects can be included as minor elements.
- E) Hand of Man Pictorial – Man made objects must be the focal point. Natural objects may be included as minor elements.
- F) Portrait – A photograph primarily of a person, especially of the face. i.e. A description, portrayal, etc., of a person.
- G) Creative/Abstract – An image that does not depict objects realistically but rather in patterns or forms of lines, masses, or colors.
- H) Sports – Any recreational activity.
- I) Photo-Journalism –Story-telling photographs of “Man and Man’s Environment.” This category includes documentary, contemporary life, illustrative, sports, news and human interest. Special emphasis is given to life in our world.
- J) Composite Prints – Any photograph where more than one image was combined, outside of the camera or initial imaging process, to make the final print.
- K) Other – Any photograph not defined by the other categories, any other subject may be entered. This category may not be used to provide multiple entries for subjects that should be entered in categories A through L.
- L) Wild Card - The Executive Committee may elect to establish one wild card category for any Annual Print Show and Competition. A wild card category may be in addition to the categories set forth above. The subject and conditions governing any wild card category shall be announced to the general membership not later than the July newsletter preceding the Annual Print Show and Competition.

8. AWARDS – The Annual Print Competition shall have awards as follows:

- A. Each entry may receive a maximum of two awards. One from the panel of judges and one Club Choice award.
- B. An impartial panel of judges shall decide overall best of show entries and competition category awards. There will be awards for Best of Show, Best Color and Best Black and White. Four (4) awards may be awarded in each category: first place, second place, third place and honorable mention. If there are less than four (4) entries in a category, after the removal of any best of show winners, the judges shall award place awards as may be appropriate to the circumstances.
- C. The club will determine by written secret ballot the best entry in each of the categories. If there is only one print in a category, the ballot shall provide for a Yes (the print should receive the club choice award) or No (no club award should be given in this category). The winner in each category will receive a Club Choice Award.
- D. Levels Points shall be awarded for each of the above awards as set forth in the provisions of the Level’s program.

9. JUDGING – Prints will be judged by at least three (3) photographers selected by the Executive Committee. The judges shall come from varied photographic specialties whenever possible. Photographs will be judged on the basis of technical quality, impact and overall neatness. They are not to be judged on matting or framing. The judges shall not have the authority to move a print from the category in which it is entered. Duplicate awards shall not be given. The Executive Committee shall issue instructions in conformance with the Rules and Regulations to each judge.

10. IDENTIFICATION – Each print must include identifying data and the category in which it is entered on the back to insure proper credit of the owner and shall not have the owners name visible on the front at the time of judging.

11. An identifying name card will be placed on or near each print following judging and the distribution of awards.

12. Members entering black and white prints in the annual print competition shall have their points counted toward the Black & White Photographer of the Year award.
13. Members entering color prints in the annual print competition shall designate their points to be counted toward either the Color Slide Photographer of the Year award or the Digital Color Photographer of the Year award.

MEETING COMPETITIONS

1. There shall be member slide/print/digital competitions at selected monthly meetings. The Executive Committee and the membership shall determine the number of competitions. The number of meeting competitions shall be no less than 4 and no more than 12.
2. Meeting Competition Categories shall be selected from a survey of the membership. The Executive Committee shall see that the categories are published in the monthly newsletter as early as practical prior to the beginning of each calendar year.
3. Meeting competitions shall be open to current members and shall be limited to a maximum of three entries per competition.
4. Meeting competitions shall be divided into 10 classes. There shall be a slide class in color for beginners, intermediate and advanced photographers. There shall be a digital class in color for beginners, intermediate and advanced photographers. There shall be a print class in black and white for beginners and advanced photographers. There shall be a print class in color and/or black and white for youth and high school.

The classes are defined as follows:

Beginners and Intermediates shall have the opportunity to move up in class at any time if they so desire.
- H) For the purpose of counting first place awards, the following annual print competition awards shall be considered to be the same as first place awards: Club's Choice, Best of Show, Best Color Print and Best Black and White Print.
5. Individuals in any class who have entered at least 50% of the total number of possible entries during a calendar year, in that particular competition class, (including meeting competitions and the annual print show) and failed to win an award during the calendar year shall be allowed to move down to the next lower class beginning with the new calendar year. Professionals shall not be granted this option.
6. Meeting competition entries are restricted to digital color images, slides of 2"x2" outside dimensions, and prints no larger than 8 1/2" x 11" outside dimensions. If matting or mount board is used on a print, it must be securely attached and no larger than 8 1/2" X 11" in size. Annual print competition size restrictions are as set forth under the provisions for the Annual Print Competition and Exhibition.
7. All entries must be related to the monthly assigned subject, but creative techniques such as double exposure, spliced slides, superimposed titles, etc. shall be permitted, unless there is a conflict with the competition category descriptions.
8. All slides shall be marked with the photographer's name and a reference mark placed in the lower left-hand corner, which establishes the correct orientation of the slide in a slide tray. All print entries shall have the photographer's name on the back.
9. No digital image, slide or print that has won an award in CCC meeting competition may be entered in any CCC meeting competition thereafter. Entries that have won an award in meeting competition may be entered in the annual print show according to the rules of that show.
10. Criteria for Judging – Meeting competitions will be judged in accordance with criteria established by the Executive Committee.
11. Each entry is scored as a 5, 4, 3, 2 or 1 with 5 being the best score and 1 being the least score. Awards are based upon the highest scores. In the case of a tie, the entry that receives the most number of 5's wins. Should a tie still exist, the most number of 4's, 3's, and 2's shall be used as tiebreakers.
12. Ribbons may be awarded in each class for first, second, third and honorable mention, provided that there are at least five (5) entries in that class. When less than five images are entered in a class, awards shall be as follows:
Four images: 1st, 2nd and 3rd places only
Three images: 1st and 2nd places only
Two images: 1st place only
One image: 1st place only if the average score is 3.0 or higher.
(See Level's Program for the designation of points awarded in monthly competitions.)
13. The selection of award winners shall be made by all individuals present, members and guests, or by one or more outside judges.
14. It is permissible for a current member to have his/her entries presented by another person in attendance. Members do not have to be present to enter the meeting competitions.

15. FIELD TRIPS – The club may elect to hold field trips and designate them as meeting competitions. A member may enter such competitions even though he/she did not make the field trip.
16. AGE OF IMAGE – There is no age restrictions on images submitted in meeting competitions.
17. COMPETITION YEAR – The competition year is defined as one (1) calendar year, January 1 through December 31.
